

LIFE'S LIKE THAT By FRED NEHER

"... one, two, three, four, five, six... do we know six people who have mice?"

Armed Forces

Cpl. Roger D. Harris, USMC, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil O. Harris of 3423 W. 188th St., left Camp Pendleton aboard the transport USS Gen. D. I. Sultan to join the Third Marine Division on Okinawa. The ship is scheduled to stop en route to Adak, Alaska, and in Japan.

Albert W. Burns, chief gunner's mate, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Woolman of 5028 Lauette, is serving aboard the destroyer USS Wedderburn, a unit of the First Fleet scheduled to visit the Seattle World's Fair.

Ralph D. Lewis, radioman third class, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Lewis Jr. of 1246 Redondo Beach Blvd., is serving aboard the heavy cruiser USS Helena, a unit of the First Fleet.

Marvin A. Garrett, chief machinist's mate, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elijah S. Garrett of 1150 W. 226th St., is serving aboard the nuclear-powered guided missile carrier USS Long Beach, observed by President John F. Kennedy during a two-day visit on April 13 and 14 to the Atlantic Fleet in Norfolk, Va.

Air Force Airman First Class Clarence R. Evans, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Thompson of 134 E. 219th Place, is participating in "Operation Dominic," the joint Department of Defense-Atomic Energy Commission nuclear test series being conducted in the Pacific.

Airman Evans, a weapons mechanic permanently assigned to Kirtland AFB, N.M., is on temporary duty for the tests.

The airman, who entered the service in January 1954, is married to the former Carolyn K. Morrow of Albuquerque, N.M. They have one child.

Army Capt. Dale K. Brudvig, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl O. Brudvig, 18151 S. Gramercy Place, participated in Command Post Exercise Grand Slam I, a five-day Central Army Group (CENTAG) exercise in Germany which ended April 13.

Grand Slam I involved headquarters units from the German, French and U.S. Armed Forces which are assigned to CENTAG, and was designed to test operational plans and procedures of these forces. CENTAG is a major element of NATO in Europe.

Captain Brudvig is commander of Company B of the 3rd Armored Division's 32nd Armor in Kirch Gons. He entered the Army in June 1957. The 26-year-old captain is a 1953 graduate of George Washington High School, Los Angeles, and a 1957 graduate of the University of Los Angeles. He is a member of Phi Kappa Psi fraternity. His wife, Greta, is with him in Germany.

Army 2nd Lt. Donald E. Comorre, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Comorre, 2544 Garnet

St., completed the officer orientation course at The Armor School, Ft. Knox, Ky., recently.

Lt. Comorre was trained in the duties and responsibilities of a platoon leader in a tank or reconnaissance company. He received instruction in armor equipment and warfare. The course includes classes in communications, tank gunnery, field engineering, automotive maintenance supervision, instructor techniques, the principles of leadership and platoon and company level armor tactics.

The lieutenant is a 1955 graduate of Lincoln High School, Los Angeles, and a 1961 graduate of the University of California, Santa Barbara. He is a member of Lambda Chi Alpha, Gamma Epsilon Tau, Epsilon Pi Tau fraternities and the Scabbard and Blade Society.

Army Pvt. Charles G. Carstens, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold C. Carstens, 2831 Dana-ha St., completed the food service course at the Quarter-master School, Ft. Lee, Va., April 6.

He entered the Army last September and completed basic training at Ft. Ord.

He is a 1961 graduate of South High School and was employed by Arlington Auto Body before entering the Army.

Pfc. Richard J. Crane, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank R. Crane, 1616 W. 260th St., Harbor City, recently achieved recognition as a top Army marksman by qualifying for the expert marksmanship badge during range firing with the Army's new M-14 rifle in Germany.

The M-14 will replace the M-1 rifle, carbine, Browning automatic rifle and M-3 sub-machine gun. It packs the fire power of a light machinegun, can be fired both automatically and semiautomatically and fires the standard 7.62-millimeter NATO cartridge.

Crane, assigned to the 52nd Artillery's Headquarters Battery in Weuzburg, entered the Army in February 1960, completed basic training at Ft. Ord, Calif., and was last stationed at Ft. Bliss, Tex. He arrived overseas in June 1961.

The 19-year-old soldier is a 1960 graduate of Narbonne High School.

Airman 3.C. Frank Beaver II, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald P. Beaver, 221 Via Los Miradores, Redondo Beach, is being assigned to a unit of the Pacific Air Forces, following his graduation from the United States Air Force technical training course for photographers at Lowry AFB, Colo.

Airman Beaver was taught camera and laboratory equipment operation, projection printing, and the loading and processing of ground and aerial film.

A graduate of Junipero Serra High School, Gardena, he attended El Camino College. He entered the service in October 1961.
